MONTHLY UPDATE

December 2016

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR DESTINATION MARKETING TEAM

VCB Members and Friends,

We exceeded our 2016 goals and are ready for a stellar 2017 connecting visitors with our destination and driving economic impact.

This year our team embarked on brand research that determined, among other unique assets, that we are a basecamp for multi-day discovery. An example of this is Eagle Rock Tours, a packaged travel company, who is using Thurston County as a basecamp to their adventure. They have booked their stay at the La Quinta in Tumwater while they explore our region as well as take an easy day trip to Mount Rainier.

Other 2016 success includes the Thurston Bountiful Byway that earned significant media attention. Outreach initiatives resulted in 180 million impressions in publications such as coverage in LA Times, Seattle Times and USA Today.

Our sales efforts successfully brought in large sports groups such as GNAC and WIAA which led to booked room nights and greater visitor spending to the region. We are also excited to welcome the Northwest Athletic (NWAC) Directors Conference in February and to host a reception to help gain exposure for our region's capacity to host NWAC events.

We look forward to expanding these efforts into 2017 to connect our region with more visitors and groups stays.

Sincerely,
Your Destination Marketing Team

* The US Airforce is planning a training at JBLM in July and Aug. of 2017. They requested about 2,000 rooms a night for 21 nights, totaling 42,000 room nights. Some rooms will likely be booked in Pierce Co., but we are working to capture as much of the business as possible in Thurston Co.
